CHILDREN OF AMERICA CHILDCARE APPOINTS KYLEE KLINE AS DIRECTOR OF TRAINING

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. – Children of America Educational Childcare has appointed Warminster resident Kylee Kline as director of training of the company’s family of local schools located throughout the Northeast and Midwest. In her new position, Kline will train all new and existing employees on Children of America’s policies and procedures and specialized curriculum.

“Kylee is a great leader who has achieved a number of accomplishments with Children of America,” said Jim Perretty, Children of America executive vice president and COO. “We know that she will not only mentor, but also motivate our teams to continue to offer the very best and successful childcare service available.”

Kline brings more than five years of childcare industry and early education experience to her new position. She has been with Children of America for over four years. She was hired as the company’s first teacher in Pennsylvania, helped to open and manage the Warminster, Pa. school and opened the Southampton, Pa. location where she continues to serve as school principal. She received a bachelor’s degree in elementary and special education from Millersville University in Millersville, Pa. and is currently pursuing her master’s degree in early childhood education online from the University of Phoenix.

Kline is an active member of the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), the Delaware Valley Association for the Education of Young Children (DVAEYC) and the Keystone Stars Program. She is certified in CPR and First Aid care for infants and children.

Those interested in enrolling a child at Children of America are encouraged to visit the school to complete an application Monday through Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. To find a school location nearest you visit the Web site at www.childrenofamerica.com.
